Mayor of Divide to Announce Winners in Final $10,000 Drawing for Pikes Peak Rotary Club Raffle with help from Teller County Regional Animal Shelter Board President Case on April 9

Meet, Spright, just named the Mayor of Divide to serve as an ambassador for the Teller County Regional Animal Shelter. Spright was voted into the position where her new role will require attending upcoming TCRAS events—including the Pikes Peak Rotary Club’s final $10,000 early drawing.

With Spright’s leash in hand, TCRAS Board President Kellie Case will announce four Early Drawing winners Friday, April 9. Eligibility for this drawing means tickets must be purchased before midnight, Wednesday, April 7th.

Case will arrive in good paws, with not only Spright, but another four-legged canine supporter named Indira. Case will share future building plans about TCRAS, the no-kill animal shelter and urge donors to support the Pikes Peak Rotary Club Home Giveaway Raffle. “I believe residents of the greater Teller County area truly care and support the mission of the Teller County Regional Animal Shelter in a way that surpasses any other area in our state and country. We are truly grateful as are the lost, unwanted, neglected and abandoned animals we serve,” Case says.

Rest assured, more cash is coming, but in smaller denominations. Final four drawings will top out at $5,000. The next drawing will take place April 23, tickets must be purchased by April 21, before midnight.

Drawing takes place at 8 a.m. at the Woodland Park Public Library, lower level, 218 Midland Ave, Woodland Park, CO.
